Peruvian Gold Hot Sauce

Our newest flavor bustles with both zest, heat, a robust touch of garlic and plenty of Peruvian flair. It delivers a distinctively different level of heat than you'll find in our two milder hot sauces.

BONZAI! Hot Sauce

Go beyond Sriracha! This sauce delivers a fierce level of heat to all cuisines, followed by a pleasant note of sweetness and ginger. Try it as a marinade or fiery condiment that can stand on its own. Bonzai, indeed!!

Mild Jalapeño Sauce

The name says it all: this sauce is rich in jalapeño flavor, yet pleasingly mild on the palate. Kick things up a notch with just a little bit of heat and a whole lot of flavor.

Mild Habanero Sauce

Most habanero sauces are too hot to savor the flavor of the pepper. Mild Habanero features a full-bodied pepper taste that complements the food - without scorching your tongue.

Tuscan Style Hot Sauce

Just like a magical trip to Italy, this sauce takes you somewhere special. The recipe makes great use of tomato with a fiery pepper flair, yielding a pleasantly spicy sauce without excessive heat

Peruvian-Style Garlic Sauce

This do-everything sauce works hard as a marinade or basting sauce for any meat, poultry or seafood. Mix it with sour cream, mayonnaise or Greek yogurt as a dip. Add a splash of salsa or salad dressings. Go on. Go garlic wild!
